

Jennis Wall

May 16, 1952 - December 8, 2009

JENNIS CLINTON WALL JR., son of the late Clinton and Louise Wall, was born on May 16, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on December 8, 2009 unexpectedly. He received his education at Northern High School and Morgan State University in Baltimore. After completing his education he moved to Washington, D.C. Where he lived all of his adult life. He became a full-time employee of Georgetown University Hospital in Washington, D.C., where he remained a dedicated and loyal employee for thirty (30) years. Jennis was not married and did not have any children. Jennis' character was to greet everyone and to spend time asking detailed questions. He was a true questioner and great listener. Jennis made friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. Jennis was devoted to his family and work. He loved to dance and sing karaoke. Jennis will be sadly missed and lovingly remembered. He leaves to mourn: three sisters, Shirley Roberson, Brenda Wall and Clintetta Wall-Darden, and brother, Nathaniel Parker; a sister-in-law, Willie Mae Parker; a brother-in-law, William Darden; niece, Anita Wilson; two great-nieces, Raven Hodge and Erica Hodge; three nephews, and their wives, Haywood and Katherine Carmichael, Darrel and Tanya Roberson and Gregory Roberson; and a host of uncles, cousins and friends.

“ To the family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. This is a sorrow that God promises will one day be no more (Rev 21:3,4). As you await the fulfillment of this promise may you find comfort from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort you in all your tribulations."
