

Jenny Alma Fitch

December 11, 1926 - October 8, 2010

JENNY ALMA FITCH, the beloved wife of the late Benjamin Louis Fitch, departed this life on October 8, 2010 to return home to her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and enjoyed being a homemaker. Jenny Alma Fitch, known to many as Mommy, Mama J. Granny and Grandma Jenny, was born to the late Robert Thompson, Sr. and Mollie Thompson on December 11, 1926 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Jenny was very well liked and loved by many family and friends. She spent her entire life caring for her family. Before Jenny became ill she was so independent. She managed to do whatever needed to be done. She was a woman of her word, she meant what she said. Jenny was blessed to live with a house full of family, including her daughter Barbara Fitch, her sons William and Tony Fitch as well as a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Jenny enjoyed watching sports like baseball and football. Her favorite teams were the New York Yankees and the Dallas Cowboys. Jenny was a sweet, kind and generous person who had a heart of gold. She enjoyed being around her family. She always cared for others and she will be missed by so many people.

Jenny Fitch leaves to mourn: four daughters, Barbara Fitch, Gale Lee, Mae

Fitch and Joyce Lee; four sons, Tony Fitch, William Fitch, Joseph Fitch and Freddie Fitch; two brothers, Williams and George Thompson; sister-in-law, Mariam Thompson; twenty-nine grandchildren, thirty-nine great-grandchildren, and twenty-four great-great-grandchildren, a son-in-law, Ralph Lee; and a daughter-in-law, Mary Fitch; and a host of close friends.
