

Jermar J. Poole

May 21, 1983 - June 22, 2003

Jermar Jerome Poole, son of Jerome Poole and Nancy Jones, was born on May 21, 1983 in Baltimore, Maryland. His untimely flight into eternity took place on Sunday, June 22, 2003. Jermar was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He received his High School diploma from Lake Clifton-Eastern High School in June of 2000. He held a couple of jobs during his short employment career. More recently, he was employed with Comcast Cable Company. On December 24, 2000, Jermar was blessed with a daughter, Jermaria Destiny Nashawn Poole. He adored his only child and was a devoted and loving father. Jermar delighted his relationship with God. He professed his faith openly by being water baptized at the New Friendship Church in Baltimore, Maryland in January of 2002. Jermar loved spending time with his family, eating home-cooked meals, and listening to music. He could often be found smiling about all the circumstances that life placed before him. Jermar was also a quiet and tenderhearted person, never refusing to help anyone in need. He will truly be missed by all who knew and loved him. Jermar leaves to cherish his loving memory: parents, Jerome Poole and Nancy Jones; grandparents, Willie Jones, Sr., Ruby Jones and Elaine Poole; great-grandparent Nancy Jones; daughter, Jermaria Poole; brothers, Julius D. Davis, Jerome Poole, and Tavis Poole; aunts, Joann Jones, Michelle Brown, Kim Glaude and Joyce Johnson; uncles, Willie Jones Jr., Darnell Poole, Tyrone Poole, and Norman Poole; godmother Jackie Boone; nieces, nephews, and a host of family and friends.
