

Jerome Anthony Botts

April 27, 1932 - April 27, 2010

His journey here on earth has ended but his new life has just begun. Jerome Anthony Botts, 78, departed this earthly life on April 27, 2010 to be one of God's newest angels. He was born April 27, 1932 in Richmond, Virginia. Jerome was predeceased by his mother Hazel Botts. As an only child, Jerome was reared in Richmond and New York. He grew up to be honest, caring, fun loving, direct yet sensitive and always willing to help however he could. Jerome was loved and admired by all who knew him. With the wonderful love he shared, he will never be forgotten and will forever be in our hearts. A faithful member of Manna Christian Fellowship, Jerome served on the Deacon Board and sung in the Male Chorus. His love for God and faith in the biblical teachings helped him during his struggle. Jerome would want to be remembered as a generous, loving and wonderfully caring person. He was a most loyal and self-sacrificing husband, father and grandfather. His sweet memories are left to be cherished by his loving and devoted wife of 47 years, Dorothy Botts; two sons, James K. and Jerome A. Botts; five grandchildren, one great-grandchild; a goddaughter, Arlene Worelds; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ To the family you have my deepest sympathy. At times it can be very hard to cope with the loss of a love one, but may you draw comfort in what Jehovah God promised us in his word the bible at Rev. 21:4 which shows that soon death will be no more. May you continue to look to God's word for comfort.##imported-begin##D. Farmer##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Jerome Anthony Botts. Losing a loved in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradie earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
