

Jerome Anthony Chase

September 3, 1942 - March 29, 2004

Jerome Anthony Chase, son of Gordon Quinn and Thereasa Chase Epps was born on September 3, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on March 29, 2004 after a lengthy illness. Known to many as "Romey," he spent most of his life in Baltimore. Romey was family oriented and enjoyed visiting family and friends. He would show up at your home ready to discuss religion, politics, current events, world affairs and gossip. He was very astute in explanations, and would present accurate facts and figures to support him. He was adamant about paying his bills on time, keeping a neat house, and kept impeccable records in chronological order. He also had a fascination with bicycles, collecting antique toys and music. Romey's neighbors affectionately called him "Speedy" because of his fast paced walking. He loved navigating the streets of Baltimore and no matter where you lived he could find you. He preferred walking or riding his bicycle to his destination to being chauffeured by car or bus. Legend has it that Romey's fast paced walking enabled him to beat the transit bus to his destination. He was also featured in the newspaper for his walking style. He loved and owned many bicycles that he used as his "Cadillac" to get around town. A vibrant and loving man, Romey's kind deeds were recognized by all who truly knew him. He was a remarkable man who did not have a violent bone in his body and did not let his handicaps keep him from remaining a kind and gentleman. He leaves to mourn: his niece, Frances Cornitcher; his great-nephew, Jeremy Cornitcher; his nephew-in-law, Daniel Cornitcher; and uncle, Julius Kyler; a great aunt, Dorothy Cole, a very devoted friend and neighbor, John Hines; many cousins, especially Barbara Brown; and other loving relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Jerome Anthony Chase

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Jerome Anthony Chase

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the family, Please accept my sympathy. During this difficult time, may you find comfort from, "...the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hello Family & Friends , I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 5:28,29 where Jesus says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM