“ *To the family I send my sympathy. May you find much comfort from the scriptures, and from our heavenly father who truly understands your pain like noone else. It's so heartbreaking to lose a loved one, but know that we have a wonderful hope of seeing them again in the ressurection. Jesus demonstrated this hope by raising many while he was here on earth; showing what he will do as king of His father's kingdom. One account is found at Mark 5:38-43 where it tells us how Jesus raised a 12-year old girl back to life. If we have faith, and are obedient to Jehovah God then we will see our loved ones too, and they will never have to die ever again. May you find much hope and strength from Jehovah"s promises, and remember that he loves you, and will one day swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. “ To the family of Mr. Gaskins, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. Despite this difficult time, you can be comforted by the Christian hope of a resurrection. Jesus promised at John 5: 28, 29: "Do not marvel at this, but the time is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Yes, the Bible holds out a solid, happy hope for the future: the opportunity to embrace your dead loved ones again.##imported-begin##A. Robinson##imported-end##
