

Jerome J. Brisbon Sr.

January 9, 1941 - February 5, 2019

Jerome J. Brisbon, Sr., son of the late Hazel Edwards and Celf Brisbon was born on January 9, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland. He peacefully departed this life on February 5, 2019.

Jerome received his education at Southern High School in Baltimore. At the age of 17, he began working as a skilled laborer at the Buffalo Tank Division of Bethlehem Steel.

After working at Buffalo Tank for 20 years, Jerome worked at Cox Creek and Alex Cooper

Auctioneers for a combined 28 years. Jerome's favorite pastimes were baseball, golf, wrestling, basketball, and football. He was a caddie for many prominent Baltimore business men and women at Forest Park Golf Course, Bonnie View Country Club, and Woodholme Country

Club for over 30 years.

He married the former Thelma A. Martin in 1967. They were married for 51 years at the time of his death. Their favorite moments together were dancing every Friday night (payday)!

From their union, three children were born: Jerome Jr., Michelle, and Renarda. He was preceded in death by his son, Jerome J. Brisbon, Jr. Jerome was an avid reader and math whiz. He read the Baltimore Sun daily, and made math puzzles that he was confident would help him win the lottery and the lotto. It turns out the puzzles worked! He loved to laugh, impersonate others, and make funny faces. He has never once met a stranger, and he's made friendships with people all over Baltimore City and the surrounding counties. Jerome had a special and unique love for each of his four sisters. His most cherished memories from his childhood were tying sheets together with his sister Charlene, and climbing out the window when their mother Hazel was at work. What started out as Rosiland chasing golf balls Jerome hit at the golf course, turned into Jerome teaching Rosiland how to play the game. To this day, Rosiland is a passionate golfer because of her big brother. Thanks to Jerome, Rosiland lettered in basketball and softball in high school. With Sharon, Jerome enjoyed long walks together in their community. He did not hesitate to talk her ear off about the most recent baseball, golf, football, or basketball game he watched. He taught her how to swing a baseball bat when she was a kid. No matter what state his baby sister Yetta resided, it was never too far for her to send Jerome packages of his favorite goodies. She also drove to Baltimore often to take him throughout the DMV area to his favorite places. Everyone knows how much he loooooooved to shop! In his final years, he enjoyed talking to his grandchildren and following their pursuits.

He reminisced about the sports he taught his sisters, and the Noxzema facials he gave them every single Saturday. You may have even found him watching The Young and the Restless and The Bold & The Beautiful with Thelma some days. He died believing he was the arm wrestling champion of the world!

Jerome's grandchildren, Jordan and Sydney Williams, proudly led him to Christ on July 12, 2018. We can rest assure he's smiling and hugging his son and his mother in heaven.

He leaves to mourn: his loving and committed wife, Thelma A. Brisbon; two daughters,

Michelle Brisbon (Donald) of Baltimore, Maryland and Renarda Williams (Keith)

of McKinney, Texas; four sisters, Charlene Brooks of Baltimore, Maryland, Rosiland

Edwards of Shreveport, Louisiana, Sharon Walton (James) of Baltimore, Maryland, and

Yetta Edwards of Ellisville, Missouri; four sisters-n-laws, Dorothy Jones (Span) of Fort

Lauderdale, Florida, Linda Collymore (Basil) of Mattapan, Massachusetts, Pamela Wilson of Roxbury, Massachusetts, and Carolyn Sweatt (Timothy) of Columbia, South Carolina, and; a loving aunt, Bernice Walters of Baltimore, Maryland; two grandsons, Steffon Brown (Priscilla) and Jordan Williams; three granddaughters, Kayla Garris, Sydney Williams, and Madison Williams; two great-granddaughters, Maleeya Brown and Serenity Brown; his best friend, Darron Garris, nieces, nephews, and a host of other loving and supportive relatives and friends.
