

Jerome Brown

October 23, 1958 - July 8, 2016

Jerome E. Brown, son of Margie Lee Davis and the late Nathaniel S. Cooper, was born on October 23, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was married to Patricia Brown for a period of time. Later, he met Toni, his constant companion until death. He departed this life on July 8, 2016 after a lengthy illness.

He received his education at City High School in Baltimore. He became employed in retail clothing and convenience store (clerk) at "Coopers" the (YWCA/YMCA) nonprofit organization dedicated to empowering women, helping kids and families find shelter.

He received Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior and grew up in Little Tabernacle Baptist Church in Baltimore. He was a lifetime member. He loved the Lord, family, gospel music and playing the bass guitar under the group manager the late (Purnell Watkins "Gospel Creators"). He played for the Lord at local church anniversaries also for his mother, late loving grandmother "Pearl Brown" and his late grandfather "Thomas Brown". He also loved playing for family/friends gatherings, at the nursing home, and celebrating with family and enjoying life.

Jerome known to some "Jerry" made friends wherever he would go. He will truly be missed by everyone.

He leave to mourn: mother, Margie Davis; brother, Will Davis; two nieces, Naressha Davis and Kesha Brown; sister-in-law, Anita Yvette Davis; aunts, Renee and Vanessa Brown of Minneapolis MN., Karen Brown of Baltimore; uncle, Arthur C. Brown; and a host of other family members and friends.

He will join in heaven: grandparents, Pearl and Thomas Brown; brother, Sonny Brown; sister, Lisa; uncle, Thomas Brown; and cousin, Michael Brown who preceded him in death.
