

Jerome Fleet

April 27, 1965 - November 8, 2009

JEROME POWELL FLEET JR., son of LaGrant (Grant) and Jerome Fleet, was born April 27, 1965 in Baltimore, Maryland. He suddenly departed his life on November 8, 2009 after a lengthy illness. Jerome (Known to all as "Binky") received his education at Fairmount High School. Binky was baptized at First Emmanuel Baptist Church as a child, and later in his life he joined Shepherd Community Baptist Church. In 1992 Binky met Tangy and from that union a beautiful little girl was born, Jenell Lisa Fleet. Besides being a daddy, Binky had many hobbies. Being with family and friends brought joy to him. The one thing that he was well known for was as an arabber, just as his brother Gregory (Big Jim) who preceded him in death. They were well known throughout Baltimore. He leaves to mourn: his mother, LeGrant; his father, Jerome Fleet; his one and only child, Jenell; seven brothers, Nathaniel, Donteze, Brandon, Dontay, Kenyon, Keontay, and Charles; two sisters, Jessica and Daisha; two uncles, Larry and Donald; two great-uncles, William Totes and Sylvester Toles; three aunts, Marion, Darlene, Paulette; great-aunt Alice Toles; a host of nieces and nephews; and three good friends, Nathaniel McNair, Tony and Rusty.

“ Dear Fleet Family, My name is Marilyn and I live in Mexico but I am from Baltimore. I tapped into the March Funeral Home remembrance registry and saw your lost. By words of encouragement and hope I want to personally express my condolences to your family and offer you a Bible hope that comforts all of us in the time of death. Please, I encourage you to look up these scriptures and read them to find comfort from God`s word. These scriptures are Isa.25:8-9, John 5:28-28, and John 11:25-26. Reading these scriptures you will find peace, joy, and hope in knowing that their is hope for our dead loved ones.

“ EARTH HAS NO SORROWS THAT HEAVEN CAN NOT HEAL. To Mrs.Branch & The Fleet Family, I would just like to express my deepest sympathy in the passing of Jerome. He will be missed by many. A few months ago I had the pleasure of his company in the Lab at the Medical Center and he shared a wonderful testimony about himself with me. He have fought a good fight and now his battle is over. No more pain or suffering. My prayers are with you all. God Bless###imported-begin##Linda F.(Matilda Koval Medical Center)###imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy to the Fleet family. The untimely loss of a loved one can be painful and difficult to bear. But, please be assured that the "God of all comfort" will help you and strengthen you in all your tribulation, according to 2Corinthians 1:3,4. Yes, Daniel 12:2 and Revelation 21:4 are promises that our Heavenly Father has made and He cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May you find consolation in your cherished memories and in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.###imported-begin##Valerie Johnson###imported-end##
