

Jerome Hazelton

January 4, 1960 - June 6, 2017

JEROME HAZELTON, son of the late John S. Hazelton, Sr. and Doretha Hazelton was born on January 4, 1960, in Baltimore, MD. God called him home on June 6, 2017.

Jerome received his education at Patterson High School in Baltimore, MD. After High School he became employed at Lafayette Square Nursing Home. He also became a full-time employee of Baltimore County Government, as well as numerous other positions.

Jerome was married to the love of his life, Marquettus Hazelton, for the past 16 years. During his previous marriage two children were born out of that union: Ericka M. Hazelton and Ryan M. Hazelton. Also from a previous relationship, his oldest son, Jerome Hazelton was born.

Jerome was known to his family and friends as Mouse. He was an avid card shark and dice player. He liked to watch sports and westerns while having drinks. Jerome also enjoyed music of the late Michael Jackson. He made numerous friends wherever he went and will be truly missed by everyone that knew him.

Preceding him in death was his sister Bettie A. Clyburn and two brothers: David and Jackie Hazelton. He leaves to mourn his wife: Marquettus

Hazelton; three children: Jerome, Ericka and Ryan Hazelton; stepson: Jamal Brown; two grandchildren: Kaden Hazelton and Nevaen Jacobs; three sisters: Rose M. Fields, Kinnie Hazelton, and Jacqueline Hazelton; three brother: Gillisbia, John, and Herman Hazelton. One brother-in-law: John Watkins; three sister-in-law: Kathy and Laura Watlins and Pamela Hazelton; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
