“ Please accept our condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians tells us that our "enemy death" will be "destroyed". The Bible also gives the encouraging promise of our loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, stress or pain. (Acts 24:15, Revelation 21:3-5, Psalm 37:29) May you receive much comfort as you think about these loving promises. And may you draw close to the maker of them Jehovah God and to his Son Jesus Christ.(John 17:3)##imported-begin##Joseph & Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one. Death is a very painful event for the family and friends left behind. We never want to see our loved ones leave us. This was certainly not God's purpose for us, to endure such heartbreaking pain. His purpose is for his will to be done on earth, just as it is being done in heaven. When he created living beings, angels and man, his desire was for all of them to live forever in peace and unending happiness. This is why Deuteronomy 32:4 says about him; "The rock, perfect is his activity. "A God of faithfulness with whom there is no injustice, righteous and upright is he." Because he is a just and loving God, one day soon Jehovah promises to end sickness and death forever, and restore life back to those who have already died. He made all of this possible through the ransom sacrifice of his dear son Jesus; who gave his life for us all. So at 1st Corinthians 15:26 he promises,"As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. Also Acts 24:15, Isaiah 25:8, and John 5:28,29 shows that there will be a resurrection or standing up to life again for the dead. Please find comfort in these scriptures, because they will without fail come true. We have the word of our loving heavenly father, who is a God who cannot lie. Hebrews 6:8. May your precious memories of your loved one also help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ May knowing that other care help in your recent lost of Mr. Jerome. The bible will help to ease the pain and see that there are brighter days ahead. Imagine the happiness to enjoyed when the dead are resurrected, John 5:28. I am looking forward to that happening. May these words proved to be uplifting.##imported-begin##l.crosby##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn about the death of Jerome. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
