“ Jerome was loving, a gentleman, funny, very wise, a musician and a dear friend. Jerome would brighten up your day with his smile. It touched your heart. He was our drummer for the Department of Recreation and Parks Choir. Boy, he could play. When I received notice of his passing, my heart grew so heavy. Then I started thinking of all the wonderful memories we shared, I began to smile. God called his son home. A place where there is no more pain, suffering and disappointments of this world. He has is wings. Jerome say hello to Corey, Paul, Rabi and Ms. Doris and the rest of the gang. Until we meet again - With Love, Carolyn Barksdale Mark

“ Jerome will always be remembered in our heart and mind. When my son and my brother, Noble D. Campbell, Sr. Passed, Jerome found it an honor and privilege to continue the tradition of the "7:00 a.m. Phone call". May God continue to bless you and keep you in His care. Lovingly, Mary E. Taylor and Debbie Taylor Latkins

“ Neil and Holly Samuels. Uncle Jerry was more than just family to us. For me, he was a mentor throughout my youth, and he was always a friend. The world is a dimmer place without his bright spirit among us.

To few people spend their lives giving to others so unconditionally. To few people are blessed with the spiritual quality which allows them to love without reservation. Jerome was one of those special souls and there will surely be a special place in heaven for him. Jerome will be missed but not forgotten.

I met Jerry in the late 60s, through Doris Samuels. He was a gentle presence in the lives of my daughter and granddaughter, Tracie and Mason. From time to time, I would see him or speak with him on the phone, and he always had kind words to say about everyone and wished me well. He was a class act. Maria (Chesca)

I met Jerome in 1990. He was such a kindhearted soul. he made my grandmother so happy. Let them tell it, it was love at first sight. He could play drums like no other could. His smile always lit up any room he entered. I'll always love you Jerome. May God continue to hold you and granny in his arms. I know your so happy now to finally be with your favorite girl my granny. God speed until we meet again.
