

Jerome W. Miles

October 3, 1954 - October 16, 2015

Jerome W. Miles, son of John A. Miles and the late Annie Mae (Miles) Clay, was born on October 03, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed his life on October 16, 2015.

He received his education from Baltimore City Public School System. He was employed through the City of Baltimore Division of Sanitation 1971-1983 where a work related injury disabled his ability to continue. While on retirement disability he worked various home improvement jobs. In 1995 he began working at Towson Town Center in environmental services where he left two years later and began working for Yellow Van Service as a road supervisor. Due a work related injury he was left with total disability in March 2000.

Jerome was an excellent chef. His hobby included fishing and he loved cooking and spending time with his family and friends. He was also a comedian he could make you smile and laugh on a bad day. He loved music and loved to dance, he also thought he was a great singer (LOL).

He married the former Yvonne Harris, and out of this union two children were born, Nakia and Wendell.

Jerome made numerous friends wherever he went, he was a people person.

He will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man.

He leaves to cherish: his wife, Yvonne E. Miles; His father, John A. Miles; one sister, Delores Miles Newsome; one daughter Nakia S. McConneaughey; two sons, Quentin A. Whaley, Wendell T. Miles; one son-in-law, Gene McConneaughey; one daughter-in-law Shona Whaley; five grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; one sister-in-law; two brothers-in-law; a host of nieces , nephews, cousins, and devoted friends.
