“ I would like to send out my deepest sympathy to Sis. Owens and family. I remember when I first met Rev. Owens at the old Garden on Carswell Street. He always excouraged me with his kind words. I will truly miss him at the Garden of Prayer Baptist Church, he could preach and would preach everyone and he would tell you the truth whether you wanted to hear it or not and that was what I liked about him. He was a true man of God. May God continue to bless you Sis. Owens and Family. Just remember, God Loves you and I do too.
