

Jerome Leon Page, Jr.

July 7, 1994 - July 21, 2010

Jerome Leon Page, Jr. "JP" was born on July 7, 1994 in Richmond, Virginia, the son of Jerome Leon Page, Sr. and Shirletta Highsmith. He grew up in Henrico, Virginia and was a rising Junior at Henrico High School.

JP in his short time on this earth made an impact on a lot of lives. He always had a comforting smile and was considered a charmer by many people. As a teenager he continued to hold on to the funny sense of humor and could be found cracking jokes or just clowning around. He loved life and was just beginning to find his way as a young adult. He enjoyed playing different sports but his favorite according to him was baseball. He had dreams of one day playing professional baseball.

On Wednesday, July 22, 2010, our Lord softly and gently called our beloved "JP" home for his eternal rest. He leaves his mother and father, Shirletta Highsmith and Jerome Page, Sr., his two brothers: Justin and Jeremiah Page; Great Grandparents: Ervin and Vernell Washington and Iretha Jackson; Grandparents: Otis Brown and Dollie Page, Roland and Joyce Jones and Robert Jackson; Aunts: Adrienne Waddy and Yvonda Dunn; Uncle; Curtis Page and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ To Jerome Paige and Family

You were such a joy to work with during our Burnout Training last month June. We were extremely glad to have met such a wonderful young man who was willing to help us during this training. We thank God for you and for who you were and what you represented. Our prayers are with you as you make your journey home.

JP...your smile and laugh and jokes will live long in my memory! It was an honor to be a part of your education and a part of your love for baseball! I know you are shining down on all of your family, friends, teachers, classmates, and loved ones and would make us all laugh if you could! All my prayers and thoughts to the family. -Ms. Mickelson

“ Losing JP is going to change life at Henrico High School tremendously. We will miss all the little things you used to do. For me, losing you was hard being that we were good friends and it made me appreciate your life as well as mine. You will be forever loved and missed JP! Happy belated birthday and may you rest in eternal peace.

“ My deepest sympathy and regards to the Page family and friends. The loss of a loved one is the hardest of processes it could be said by each one of us that we wish death did not exist, That for us seems impossible but its not for the almighty creator of life Jehovah God! He promises us something marvelous in his word the bible at Revelations 21:3,4 where it says And he will wipe out every tear from there eyes and Death will be No more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore ....So we see not only will he do away with these things this such as death but he also promises us something else at John 5:28,29 which says Do not marvel at this (death) because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice (Jesus) and come out.... So we can see that there is a real hope because the creator of life promises he will bring back to life all our loved ones we may have lossed.
