

Jerone Jackson, Sr.

June 26, 1942 - March 4, 2013

The Legacy of Jerone Jackson, Sr.

On Monday, March 4, 2013, God sent two angels to Virginia to accompany Jerone Jackson, Sr., "Roni", 70, to the pearly gates of heaven. He was born June 26, 1942 to the late Katherine Jackson of Richmond, Virginia. He was preceded in death by long time devoted friend, Mamie Jean Jackson.

Roni graduated from Virginia Commonwealth University "VCU" with a Bachelor of Science Degree in May, 1983 and graduated from J. Sergeant Reynolds Community College with an Associate Degree in Applied Science major in Community and Social Service in June, 1984.

He worked at Thalhimers Department Store as a cook and in the production department Phillip Morris. He was a member of Shiloh Baptist Church where he had grown to love the word of God, thus serving and loving the Lord through his voice of song. He sung with the Celestial Chorus which led him and others to form the group "The Stars of VA", where he served as a dedicated member until his health started to fail.

Besides the enjoyment of singing, he loved to fish, travel, gamble and bowl. He was known by how direct he was about things, never one to sugar coat anything! He also loved to laugh and spend time with “the boys” and his grandchildren and great grand’s. He was loved by most, but God loved him more!

Roni was loved and will truly be missed. He was the backbone, the strength, and the light of our family. We will never allow the light to flicker and we will carry his torch to eternity.

He fought a good fight and now he has finished his course.

He leaves to cherish his memory two loving daughters, Starlett Harris-Abernathy, Martina L. Hall; one caring son, Jerone Jackson, Jr. and one adopted daughter Desiree Hall Edwards (Vincent); ten beloved grandchildren Lenny Harris Jr., Tierra Harris, Senovia Abernathy, Ariel Trayham, Sintoya Addison, Jenae Harris, Keon Hall, Kyree Hall (Tosha), Kareem Hall and Kendall Hall; ten great grandchildren, one sister-in-law, Eula Mae Wilson; one brother-in-law, Dr. David L. Reynolds, Jr. (Brenda); his fiancé, Brenda Goodman, and a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends; devoted spiritual brothers, the late Clyde Wilson, Irvin Mayo and James Jackson of The Stars of Virginia.

“ To the family of Jerome Jackson Sr.:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in the scriptures at Revelation 21:4 " he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.”

Ms. Howard - March 05, 2013 at 03:20 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
