

Jerrie Edward Thurman

April 14, 1948 - February 5, 2006

Early in the morning, just after the break of dawn there was a new child in town as Evelyn and the late Allen Thurman became the proudest parents of a bouncing baby boy on Wednesday, April 14, 1948 in Berkley, South Carolina. After sitting and thinking about a name, Jerrie was called out and Edward too. They were found pleasing to the ear as this ten pound baby was given the name JERRIE EDWARD. With their baby locked in their arms, not only nurturing but a little spoiling was on time as this tiny little fellow was off to a brand new start. Jerrie had to go with mom and dad as they journeyed to their new home in Baltimore City. It was only a few years later when Jerrie had to leave the house, school days... school days was what he was about. His educational endeavors were met in the Baltimore City Public Schools and after obtaining his diploma he ventured out and abroad. Jerrie met and married Mary Louise Richardson, who preceded him in death, but not before two daughters were born. Jerrie, "Gerald" as he was known, joined the United States Army. After completing Basic Training he was off to Munich, Germany which showed he was grown at last. When his military tour had ended, PFC Jerrie Thurman held high in his hand an Honorable Discharge, as he was bound for home at last. After returning home, Jerrie met and fell in love with Rose Moreno and asked for her hand in marriage, and with this union their families combined to include six children. His Entrepreneurship was most rewarding as he completed home improvements, and auto-mechanics and could be found under your car or inside of someone else's. He enjoyed helping others. Jerrie loved to watch cartoons, ride his bicycle, and collecting National Geographic Magazines. You could always find him lovingly playing with his children and grandchildren, but education was his number one priority for all of them. "Do something with your life, for life is too short", this was his favorite saying. But death once again invaded our home, as our loved one had no time to say so long or goodbye for God called him home on Sunday, February 5, 2006. Those he leaves to carry his memory in their hearts are: his mother, Evelyn Thurman; four daughters, Antoinette Singleton, April Nesbit, Anita Thurman and Alecia Thurman; one son, Jerrie Thurman, Jr.; nine grandchildren, Mikita, Angel, Jamal, Arielle, Allen, Tyrell, Alanna, Ashley and Christopher; one son-in-law, Charles Nesbit; one mother-in-law, Ethel Mae Jordan; one brother-in-law, Charlie Jordan; seven aunts and two uncles all of South Carolina; a devoted, loving significant other, Regina Tomsetti; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Jerrie Edward Thurman

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Evelyn & family, I'm so sorry for your loss. My thoughts are with you on this day.##imported-begin##Luci Thomas##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Regina, My heart goes out to you, I'm so sorry for your loss. My thoughts are with you on this day.##imported-begin##Luci Thomas##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Momma. My thoughts and prayers go out to you at a time which must be very difficult for you. Hang in there baby. Juliana##imported-begin##Juliana Mc Kenna##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Gina. I love you and my heart goes out to you. My prayers are with you today and always. Mom##imported-begin##Juliana Mc Kenna##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest and most heartfelt condolences to the family of Mr. Thurman at this time. Sadly, death continues to take our loved ones away from us. The pain cuts so deeply, because we miss them so very much. Jehovah knows more than anyone the pain we suffer when we lose a loved one, that is why he sent his most precious son Jesus to do away with sin and death by means of his precious ransom sacrifice of his own life so that we might live. He stated at John 10:10, "I have come so that they might have life and have it in abundance." One day, according to John 5:28,29, all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." So our loved ones will live again according to his promise. So as you mourn the death of your loved one, please remember the good times you shared, and the good times to come as we await the promised resurrection.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM