

Jerrilene Wright

November 26, 1957 - April 27, 2019

JERRILENE P. WRIGHT, daughter of late Jesse Davis Pugh and Sallie Mae Pugh, was born on November 26, 1957 in Washington, D. C. she departed her life on April 27, 2019.

At a very early age Jerrilene moved from Washington, D.c. to Baltimore with her mother and siblings where she received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She went on to further her education to become a Medical Assistant and after completion of school she became employed at John Hopkins Hospital as a Clinical Associate. She later had to resign to care for her husband's medical needs, but that didn't stop her from caring others in her community.

Jerrilene loved her community where she raised her five girls. This motivated her to become a community volunteer worker for Douglass Homes Public Housing. She would often times have kids who lived in Douglass who affectionately called her Aunt Jerri, and came and ate a meal with her and her girl's. She loved them like her own family.

Jerrilene enjoyed traveling, cooking, going to concerts and comedy shows and cruises. She enjoyed spending time with family bringing them together for holidays and on occasions that celebrated others; to know her was to love her because she loved people.

Jerrilene also had a love God and His word. She would often study the bible and attend Christian meetings with her children. Jerrilene also was an interior decorated and florist designer later opening her own business in 2010.

Jerrilene was a true friend and a devoted wife to her husband.

Keith...

*I GIVE YOU THIS ONE THOUGHT TO KEEP-
I AM WITH YOU STILL-I DO NOT SLEEP.
I AM A THOUSAND WINDS THAT BLOW, I AM THE DIAMOND
GLINTS ON SNOW, I AM THE SUNLIGHT ON RIPENED GRAIN, I AM
THE GENTLE AUTUMN RAIN. WHEN YOU AWAKEN IN MORNING
HUSH, I AM THE SWIFT, UPLIFTING RUSH OF QUIET BIRDS IN CIRCLED FLIGHT. I AM THE SOFT STARS THAT SHINE AT NIGHT.
SO DO NOT THINK OF ME AS GONE - I WITH YOU STILL- IN EACH
NEW DAWN AMEN...*
