

Jerrod Demetrius Oliver

September 8, 1982 - March 16, 2012

Jerrod Demetrius Oliver "Rod" was born on September 8, 1982 to the late Bertie Oliver, Jr. and Sharon Pannell. He accepted Christ, baptized at an early age and was a member of Antioch Christian Center. He was educated in Henrico County Public Schools, and was active in several different sports and gained much guidance and instructions from the Boys and Girls Club of Richmond as a teen. During his school years, Jerrod was employed with Foot Lockers where he showed a lot of love for sneakers. He worked several odd jobs, but did not like working for others, so he decided to pursue his dreams in the music. Jerrod later created his own music label "PLUG SQUAD ENTERTAINMENT" where he devoted a lot of time and new ideas to creating local musical videos on Facebook and You-tube. He interacted with a host of local and upcoming music personalities in the hopes of making it big someday. Jerrod was a devoted father and shared his love of music with his son, spent many days at Dave & Busters, playing video games, doing homework, cooking or just chillin at the house as Rod would say. Jerrod was a practical joker and loved making people laugh. He treated everyone as his longtime friend. He loved to shop for sneakers, and also had an interest in old school cars. He gave back to the community by giving clothes and sneakers he no longer needed to the local shelters for homeless men. Jerrod is preceded in death by his father Berie Oliver, Jr., grandparents, Archibald and Katherine Mayo and Lionel Oliver. He leaves to cherish his memories for his son Jerrod Demetrius Oliver, Jr., loving and devoted mother, Sharon Pannell, two devoted sisters, LaShan Robinson (Keith) and Sheree Pannell; three nieces, DaShan & Emani Ross & Keilani Robinson, nephew, Kenard Pinkston; grandfather, Bertie Oliver, Sr., a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, devoted friends and one dearly devoted friend, Reneeka Bailey.

“ Dear Family. I'm very sorry to hear about the loss of your dear Jerrod. The Bible foretells a time when "death will be no more." (Rev. 21:4). When our loved ones die, we mourn. Jesus told his disciples "Lazarus our friend has gone to rest." He was at rest in death, as though in a deep sleep. (John 11:11-14) Jehovah God created us with the desire to live forever. We die is because of Adam's sinful condition as well as death was passed on to all of his descendants. (Rom 5:12) That sin is like a terrible inherited disease from which no one can escape. Its consequence, death, is a curse. Death is an enemy, not a friend. (1Cor 15:26) How grateful we can be that Jehovah God provided the ransom to rescue us from this dreadful enemy through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ! Read these scriptures anytime you think of Jerrod; may they console you, because as long as you stay close to God and serve him wholeheartedly, you will see Jerrod in the Earthly Paradise! (Psalm 37:29; Rev 21:3,4).

“ As I look at your picture, I still see the little boy I knew that stayed with me and my boys, it seems only yesterday.ruth Ruth I am so overwhelmed with emotions, that only a Mom could know! So to you Sister Sharon and all of the family that I have not seen in a while: I can only offer heartfelt prayers to the Father on your behalf, that he would bring peace, comfort and strength that ONLY HE can give in times like these. We love you and have been praying for you since we heard. Sister Polly, Hopewell.

“ I send my love and sympathy out to his family. I pray that his family keeps God as their Lord and savior and know that he wont put more on them then they can bare in their time of need. Its when u think you are walking alone he is walking with u. He hear your cries and he will answer according to his plan. Just know Rod is looking down and smiling because now he is in paradise at peace. Keep him alive in memories and it is then you feel he has never left you.

Sincerely, Tara Lockley with Love
