

Jerry B. McNeill

July 27, 1939 - July 13, 2002

After a lengthy illness with periods of respite Jerry B. McNeill Jr., departed this life July 13, 2002. He was the son of the late Jerry and Evertean McNeill. Jerry graduated from Carver Vocational Senior High School, after which he went to work for Joseph Seagram and Sons, Inc., and accumulated thirty-five years of uninterrupted service retiring in 1997. He attended Grace Presbyterian church from a very early age until adulthood. Later he attended Wayland Baptist Church. Jerry was a member of the Pal of Mine Social Club where he is remembered fondly. He traveled extensively with a special liking for shows on Broadway. He leaves to cherish his memory, two brothers, Cecil and Roland; two sisters, Janet and Coretha; a loving aunt, Charlotte Brown and her daughter, Janie Carter. Nieces, nephews, other relatives and many devoted friends will remember him.
