

Jerry D. Brown

March 27, 1948 - July 13, 2014

Jerry D. Brown, son of the late Calvin Sr and Elizabeth (Bessie) Brown, was born on March 27, 1948 in Baltimore, Maryland. Jerry accepted Christ in his life at an early age and was baptized at St Matthews Methodist Church in Baltimore, Maryland. On Sunday, July 13, 2014, God called his child home to rest.

Jerry was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He worked several jobs throughout his lifetime. He was a valued employee at Automatic Rolls for several years. He diligently worked as a shipper on the loading dock and a machine operator in the dough-room making rolls/buns until his illness which caused him to retire.

Jerry was raised by his father, Calvin Sr., Aunts Viola and Dorothy, his Uncle Jim, and his brother, Calvin Jr. after the passing of his beloved mother, Elizabeth (Bessie) when he was young. They knew the importance of a strong devoted and godly family. Calvin Jr. eventually took on the role not only as his big brother but also his protector which he wore that title proudly. They shared a bond that will never be broken.

Jerry enjoyed dancing, eating crabs, listening to oldies but goodies music, playing spades and pitty pat with friends. He also enjoyed traveling to Atlantic City and most of all, he enjoyed a good meal whether it was eating or cooking for his two brothers until his illness.

Jerry leaves to cherish his memory, two brothers, Calvin Jr. and Norman Sr.; 1 sister-in-law Gladys; 4 nephews, 11 nieces which includes his God-daughter, Dora; a host of great-nieces, great-nephew, cousins, and friends.

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

“ *To the Family and Friends of Jerry D. Brown:
I was reading about the death of your loved one and I wanted to write to share some words of comfort. Death is such a terrible and painful thing. It is normal to grieve. Actually we should, because Ecclesiastes 3:1 and 4. says there is a time to weep. The bible also tells us that we have the hope of never seeing death again. It says at Revelation 21:4 that 'there will be no more death, sickness or pain'. So God is going to bring about the time when there will be no more things like this to bring about such pain and grief. Well I do hope these scriptures have brought a little comfort to you. If you have any comments or questions please e-mail me or go to www.jw.org*
