

Jerry Bryant

September 19, 1951 - October 20, 2012

JERRY BRYANT, affectionately called (JB) by all who knew him, was born to Lee Bertha Bryant and Curtis Bryant Sr. on September 19, 1951 in Detroit, MI. He was the second born of seven children, Curtis June Bryant preceded him in death, Frank Lee (Frankie) Griffin, Faye Diane Brooks, Linda (Linbird) Giles preceded him in death, Theresa (Moola) Green and James (Pook) Bryant.

He was educated in the Detroit Public School System. He spent his early years in the “motor city” running in the neighborhood with childhood friends like Lil Stevie Wonder and Donald Goines. He moved to Baltimore City in 1989 and shortly after met Anna Mae Green who later became Anna Mae Bryant and through their union a daughter Jerri Anna Bryant was born. JB joined the New Shiloh Baptist Church where he served as a member for over twenty years. He was employed at the Community College of Baltimore County at Catonsville until he retired in 2005. JB loved the Motown sound as well as all music from that era. He enjoyed traveling, spending time with family, experiencing new things and putting smiles on the faces of others. Some would say he was generous to a fault.

JB leaves to mourn: his wife, Anna Mae Bryant; three daughters and one son-in-law, Jerri Anna Bryant, Takia Feaster and Keisha and Matthew Clea; three grandchildren, Sakia (Boonsa) Ashby, Joshua Clea and Kyemah Clark; two brothers, two sisters and one sister-in-law, Frank and Ellen Griffin, James

Bryant, Diane Brooks and Theresa Green; one uncle, Jerry Griffin; and an especially dear and devoted niece, Kristy and Michael Jordan. He also leaves four nephews, three nieces, two great-nephews, six great-nieces; and a host of other loved ones, relatives and cherished friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
