

Jerry D. Langley

February 17, 1968 - April 5, 2007

Jerry Duane Langley, son of Jerry Langley and Darlene Battle Langley, was born on February 17, 1968 in Wilson, North Carolina. Jerry departed this life on April 5, 2007. Duane, as many called him received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System, where he graduated from Baltimore City College in 1986. After earning his Bachelors degree from Rocky Mountain College in Billings, Montana, Duane went to Brochun, Germany to play professional basketball. Then he returned to Maryland to become an Assistant Coach for the University of Maryland Eastern Shore Basketball Team in 1992. In 1995, Duane decided to pursue the sports world more intensely and went to Chipola Junior College as a Basketball Coach. He was later employed with Enterprise Rent-A-Car as District Manager in 1996. Jerry enjoyed playing basketball, going fishing and watching sports. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Darlene Battle Langley; father, Jerry Langley; sister, Tawana Hawkins; brother-in-law, Jonathan Hawkins; nieces, Jhana and Teyana; nephews, Lawrence Chris Hawkins and Nicholas Hawkins; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. Don't Weep For Me Nor even mourn For I am at peace, Because I have gone home My troubles are over, I have no more worries. I only see sunshine, There is no more rain. Dry your eyes don't weep for me For I am with my Savior And that is where I want to be!

“ Love reveals the hurt within when loss has come and life seems dim. God understands and feels it too. His arms are there for holding you. God will never ignore your pain, but longs for you to hope again.##imported-begin##Evelyn Melton##imported-end##

“ Please accept our condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible tells us at First Corinthians 15:26 that our enemy death will one day be destroyed. (First Corinthians 15:26)The Bible gives the hope of our loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. For many this will take place on a paradise earth with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (See Revelation 21:3-5, Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43) It is our hope that you receive much comfort and strength from these promises and their maker Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Sharon & Joe Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ My most sincere condolences to the family and friends of Jerry. I am so sorry for your loss. Sickness and death is a most hurtful event unfortunately we all have to face in this life at present, but soon, through the pages of the bible, God lets us know that one day, "No resident will say, 'I AM Sick.' Isaiah 33:24. Also he promises at Isaiah 25:8 to swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." By means of the resurrection many will live again in peaceful conditions. Jehovah God never fails to keep his word, and he is the God of truth of whom it is impossible for him to lie." Heb6:18 So one day soon his promise of a resurrection will come to pass, and our loved ones will be raised from the grave. John5: 28,29. Rev.21: 3,4. May those scriptures comfort you as you mourn the death of your loved one.###imported-begin##R Johnson###imported-end##

“ There are no words of sympathy that can/will stop the pain that your family feel over the loss of someone you love, but I do hope that it helps to know that others care and have all of you in our thoughts and prayers, may it comfort you to know that the God of all comfort is ready to help you deal with this pain(2Corinthians 1:1:3-4), My deepest sympathy is with all of you.##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that God "is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves." (see Psalm 34:18) Isn't this a comforting thought? Please find comfort in the Bible's message.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##
