“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

JERRY HARPS JR, the son of the late Jerry Harps SR and Christiana Harps was a great man, profound leader, God-fearing Christian, dedicated father, devoted husband and the oldest male figure of the Harps family. He was a provider who commanded respect and stood strong and bold and sacrificed himself even until death. Full of as much life as his 93 year old body could muster; my Uncle Jerry was a soldier for the Lord as a Deacon of First Baptist Church of Cherry Hill in Baltimore, MD.

On October 10, 2012, while Jerry Harps SR's name remains inscribed on the cornerstone of Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church of Marion, SC his oldest son's remains bypass First Baptist, Mt. Pisgah, and Bethel Methodist Church, the church of his mother to rest alongside his mother, father and three brothers Howard, Kenneth and James at a graveside service at Jackson-McGill Cemetery, Marion, SC. As we all mourn the loss of a great man who has become a household name and one who leaves a legacy of dignity and pride, a burial fit for a king would have been appropriate.

Jerry Harps JR leaves to mourn a wife of seventy years of marriage, Eloise Harps of Baltimore, MD; a brother, Benson Harps of Baltimore, MD; four sisters: Mattie Mae Shannon of Marion, SC, Aretha Kenny of Columbia, SC, Annie Ruth Bobo of Spartanburg, SC and Cynthia Cordle of Columbia, SC., several children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends. I will forever miss my Uncle Jerry and most of all his infectious laughter.

“ *On Behalf of Louis Moore and the Moore Family:
Mr. Harps was a close friend of my father, a fine neighbor and someone I personally looked up to-a mentor! They don't come any finer! My family will miss you greatly.*

“ To the Harps Family: Mr. Harps was a godly icon in your family. Now he has completed his transition from earth to Heavenly glory. May the Peace of God dwell in you richly during this time. May the love of God envelope you completely during this transition. May the grace of God sustain you always. You are always in our hearts and our prayers.
