

Jerry Allyn Johnson

February 8, 1954 - February 1, 2016

Jerry Allyn Johnson was born in February 8, 1954. He was the seventh of nine children born to Aaron B. and Ellen M. Johnson.

Jerry accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Shiloh Baptist Church. He graduated from Patrick Henry High School where he was an amazing basketball player. He was famous for breaking high scoring records. Seemingly the ball was like butter off of his fingertips and into the basket. Many knew him as “Jerry Johnson the Superstar!!” After graduating, he proudly joined the United States Army. He spent time traveling in the United States and abroad. When he was honorably discharged from the U. S. Army, he lived in Germany for a while. When he returned home, he settled in Chesterfield County. Jerry was hired at E. R. Carpenter, and made it his career. He enjoyed the simple life. He put the word DIE-HARD in his passion for the Redskins, and the Lakers.

Jerry had a quiet spirit that would make it easy for anyone to love him. His smile and laughter would fill a room with his presence.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Aaron B. and Ellen M. Johnson, three brothers, John B., James E., and Carlton Johnson; two sisters, Simena E. Jenkins and Sophronia A. Jones.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife, Rosa Eggleston Johnson, one step-son Ahad Shabazz Allah (Angel), four grandchildren, Kenya Morris, Mia Shabazz, Kabir Shabazz and Makkah Shabazz. One great-granddaughter, Kimora Banks; his loving family, one brother, Joel Johnson (Amanda) and two sisters Sandra Howard (Kenneth), and Sylvia Anderson (Dale); sister-in-laws, Mamie Johnson, Marilyn Ellis (James), brother-in-laws, Charles Eggleston, Vernon Eggleston and Allen Jones. Jerry loved his three remaining aunts dearly, Earlene Henderson, Gladys Woody, and Juanita Henderson. Devoted nieces, Lisa Eggleston, Sherry Johnson, Clemins Macklin; devoted nephews James Anderson, Dale Anderson Jr., and Corey Winston. Devoted lifelong friends, David Nicholas, Boobie Willis, Kevin Hunger, and George Wallace. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.
