“ Boo I will always cherish the memories that you and I shared! I never would have imagined that just talking with you a week before you were taken away from this world would be our last time talking. You were always making sure that others around you were good and if they needed anything, even if that meant giving up your last. You were truly an angel here on earth so I know that you are fitting right in being an angel in heaven! Until we meet again! I love you Boo

“ You had not to long ago reached out to see how I was doing. You were always good with checking up on people. And you would end the conversation with "fosho". You will truly be missed my friend. Until we meet again.

“ I just huggged you at the Saint Patrick's Day event on the boulevard. You were always smiling no matter where I saw you at in Richmond. You will be greatly missed. The lord has another angel.
