

Jervine Anita Nelson-Turner

February 27, 1955 - May 19, 2006

MRS. JERVINE ANITA TURNER, the beloved daughter of Pearlie Mae Singleton Nelson and the late Archie Nelson, was born February 27, 1955 in Clarendon County, South Carolina. In 1956, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland with her family. She received her education in the public schools of Baltimore City. At an early age, Jervine joined St. Paul United Methodist Church and later moved her membership to Created For So Much More Apostolic Church. On August 10, 1985, she married Charles Lee Turner, Jr. To this union two sons were born, Christopher Rian Nelson and Devin Troy Turner. Christopher gave her the gift of a beautiful granddaughter, Ariana Tye-Imani Nelson, who became a source of inspiration to her for the past ten years. Jervine ("Jerv") delighted in being the center of attention and the life of the party. She continuously added new friends to her repertoire. Her creative ability allowed her to make stunning prom dresses, regal ministerial robes and astonishing costumes. God in His infinite wisdom is keenly aware when one of His children has grown tired of their tedious earthly journey. Jervine answered the Master's call at Tuomey Healthcare System in Sumter, South Carolina on Sunday, March 19, 2006. She leaves to continue her legacy: a loving and devoted husband, Charles Lee Turner, Jr.; two sons, Christopher and Devin; a loving and devoted nephew and "first son," Ahmed Ridley; one granddaughter, Ariana Tye-Imani Nelson; a loving mother, Pearlie Singleton Nelson; two brothers, Archie and Danny Nelson; two sisters, Marje Sharif and Vernessia Canty; four sisters-in-law, Cynthia and Jerlean Nelson and Natalie and Portia

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My deep sympathy goes out to your family for the loss of your loved one. When we lose a loved one it's such a hard event in our lives to deal with. The scriptures can be a great source of comfort in dealing with our grief, because they highlight the bright future God has in store for mankind. Death will not always be our legacy, because soon God promises to end all pain, suffering, and death ; and bring about a peaceful new world. That is something we all long for, and this natural will soon be fulfilled. At Revelation 21:3-5 he promises to wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. At that time he further says that these former things will have passed away." Please find comfort and a hope for the future of seeing your loved one again by means of the resurrection.##imported-begin##R

“ I offer my sincere condolences to the Nelson family. At times like these it seems difficult to find comfort. May the hope of the resurrection at Acts 24:15, prove beneficial, it says there is going to be a ... "resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Almighty God also promises to remove our enemy death at 1Cor 15:26. May this provide you with the strength and prove to be a great source of comfort to your family.##imported-begin##Mrs.
