

Jesse A. Gross

June 24, 1942 - April 23, 2003

Jesse A. Gross, son of the late Algernon Gross and Elizabeth Redclif, was born on June 24, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland. Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Ford, who raised him, preceded him in death. He departed this life on April 23, 2003. He was married to Gloria Jean Gross and from this union three children were born. He received his education at Carver Vocational Technical High School. He became employed by the Sun Cab Company as a cab driver in 1978. He stayed loyal to the company after the name changed to the Yellow Cab Company and remained with them for ten years. He loved home cooked meals, to laugh and joke, to play cards (especially pinochle), and made himself available to his family and friends when transportation was needed. He will truly be missed. He leaves to mourn: three children, one daughter, Gloria Perry and two sons, Jesse Gross Jr. and Eric Gross; nine grandchildren and one great-granddaughter; Natalie Ford, who was like a sister/life long friend. Marva McCullugh and her five children, Yvonne, Joanne, Arnedia, Howard and Charlene; two good buddies, Frederick Bagwell and Barbara Coleman; a host of other relatives and friends.
