

Jesse Booker

April 8, 1925 - January 3, 2013

On January 3, 2013, our loved one was called by our Heavenly Father (to rest). Jesse William Booker, also affectionally known as “Jesse” was born on April 8, 1925 to his parents the late Joseph Allen Booker and Felicia Folks in Meherrin, Virginia. Jesse. Jesse was the youngest boy of nine children.

“Jesse” received his education in the Meherrin, Virginia. Public School System and later graduated from Morton High School. After high school, Jesse enlisted in the later United States Military from 1942 to 1946. After serving in military he migrated to Baltimore, Maryland. While in Baltimore he gained employment at Bethlehem Steel where he worked 30???????????????? years when he later retired in 1990.

“Jesse” was saved and baptized at an early age. He began his walk with Christ attending, New Bethel Baptist Church in Meherrin, Virginia. Upon moving to Baltimore he joined Zion Baptist Church, under the tutelage Rev. Matthew Walter Wilkerson, Reverend M. F. Prentice is now the pastor.

In his spare time, “Jesse” enjoyed playing cards and watching the Westerns on television with his family and friends. If he was not doing wither of these, he was on the phone talking to his best friend, Lenwood Booker. He was also known for the stylist hats he always wore. If you seen Jesse, he always had a hat. Everyone Jesse en counted, he left an indelible impression upon them.

In 1963, he met Ruth Spencer-Booker, the love of his life who preceded him in death in January, 2009 after being together for over 46 years.

Left to cherish his memories are his sons, Louis Spencer III, and Kevin Short; one brother; Lenwood Booker, daughter-in-law, Olivia Spencer; two special family members, Joseph and Edward Eggleston; special friend, Doretha Watkins; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in the scriptures at Revelations 21:4 " he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more ".

Ms. Howard - January 31, 2013 at 09:57 AM

“ Lou,

*Although you may feel that it's impossible to see beyond your pain,
May you cherish the good memories that will bring you comfort and help you through this difficult time.
May your heart and soul find peace and happiness.
May the blessings of God be upon you and God's peace always dwell within your soul now and forever more.*

May your grandfather sleep in heavenly peace.
