

Jesse Ray Carmon

January 11, 1946 - January 2, 2017

Jesse Ray Carmon was born on January 11, 1946 in Pitt County of Greenville, North Carolina. He was the only child born to Jesse James Carmon and Mable Carmon. He was affectionately know as "Buck".

As a child, Buck began attending church with his mother and father. At a very early age, he gave his life to Christ and became a member of the Cherry Lane Free Will Baptist Church which is now located in Greenville, North Carolina.

Buck attended school in Winterville, North Carolina and graduated from W. H. Robinson Union High School with full honors. He was a lover of sports and played basketball in high school. Buck had a special love for all people, so he began driving the school bus, and continued until he graduated.

Upon graduation Buck was drafted into the United States Army. He had an opportunity to travel all around the world while serving his country, Buck loved the army-life. After a career of serving his county and mankind for twenty (20) years, two (2) months and two (2) days, Buck retired at the rank of E-7 Sergeant First Class, and was honorably discharged.

Buck was preceded in death by his mother, Mable Carmon and father, Jesse James Carmon. He had a step-brother, Earl Mills, that also preceded him in death.

Jesse Ray "Buck" Carmon leaves to cherish his memories, two daughters Michelle Woodson of Baltimore, Maryland and Gwendolyn Bond of Baltimore, Maryland; two grand-daughters, Shirelle Monique Dingle, and Morgan Dingle, both of Baltimore, Maryland; three aunts, Ophelia Cox of Greenville, North Carolina, Martha James Crandell of Winterville, North Carolina, and Edna Gray Boyd of Ayden, North Carolina; two uncles, Curtis Ray Carmon of Grifton, North Carolina, and J. C. Carmon of Grifton, North Carolina; and a host of cousins and friends.

“ *Hello I want to give the family my deepest condolences and to also let you know that the last enemy death will be no more as found in God's word the Bible in Rev 21:4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”
I hope that this gives you comfort*
