

Jesse Eugene Goodwin

December 13, 1959 - September 29, 2013

JESSE EUGENE GOODWIN, son of the late Eugene and Georgia Goodwin, was born in Washington, D.C. He peacefully departed this life on September 29, 2013 after a courageous battle with cancer.

He received his education in the D.C. public school system and received his Associates degree from Essex Community College in Maryland. Jesse went on to attend Arch Vocational School where he earned his certification in Carpentry. He worked as a carpenter for Pete Construction and Walker Mill Apartments while he resided in D.C. In the summer of 2004, Jesse moved to Baltimore and began working for Maryland Labor Finders in addition to working for himself as a carpenter. Jesse worked in the fields of carpentry and plumbing and most recently as a certified flagger while employed at Labor Finders. He was a hard working, dedicated employee and took his work very seriously.

While working at Labor Finders, Jesse met and later married the former Cherees Dow. From this union Jesse inherited two stepdaughters, Danielle and Alisa, and son-in-law, Jerome.

Jesse traveled all over the United States visiting every state except Alaska and Hawaii. He made numerous friends along the way and will sincerely be missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a loyal friend and devoted family man.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Cherees Goodwin; son, Jessie Goodwin; stepdaughters, Danielle Jackson and Alisa Richardson; son-in-law,

Jerome Jackson; two grandchildren, Daja and Jada Jackson; sister, Shirley Goodwin; two aunts, Pearl Williams and Pamela McKinnon; mother-in-law, Claudia Dezurn; father-in-law, James Dow; sister-in-law, Nina Wilkins; and a host of cousins and friends.

He was preceded in death by his younger brother, David Goodwin.

“ Dear Goodwin Family;

While reading the online obituary, I observed the death of your love one.

Death is an enemy to all mankind and who can understand it? It can and dose have a devastating effect on you and your family as well.

Can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline: 'When Death Is Swallowed Up Forever....' What a wonderful time that will be. Revelation 21:4 offers this hope, it states, "And he (God) Will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." What a comforting hope.

If you would be interested in learning even more, I can send you a little tract that is entitled "What Hope For Dead Loved Ones"? I am not selling anything or conducting any business of any sort, not now or ever. I am just showing Neighborly love like what (Mark 12:31) mentions. If you have any questions please feel free to contact me at this e-mail address here (b.molina56@yahoo.com).

I offer my sincere condolences and my the God of peace be with you and your family.

*Sincerely Yours,

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ Dear Lord,

*My heart is heavy for those who have lost a spouse. I could not imagine losing my best friend and lover, yet these husbands and wives know that pain all too well. I pray that your lovingkindness would comfort them. I pray that your love would fill their hearts. Reveal to them the purpose of their spouse's death or the good that can come from their loss. Help them to regain strength and confidence. If any of them have pulled away from you in anger I pray that you would soften their hearts and mind. Draw near to them in personal ways. May you help them cope with the pain from day to day as they experience healing and peace in Jesus name AMEN!
"God Bless" you Cherees may you be comforted by his love in your loss. Jerry*
