

Jesse Jerome Rogers

April 4, 1912 - September 12, 2008

On April 9, 1912 Jesse J. Rogers Jr. was born to a Mr. And Mrs. Jesse and Henetta Rogers. He was born and raised in Baltimore city where he attended school. He was employed at Bethlehem Steele until his retirement. He was also a Teamer Union leader, AFLCLO. He was a delegate for that union, he was a community leader in helping people any way he could. He was a strong leader and well known in the Downtown area. He was a warm, friendly, outgoing fun loving person who never turned his back on anyone who and never held a grudge. He was a genuine person, loyal and extremely protective of his family and friends. He will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. Jesse loved to eat, he would go on his journey on Greenmount Ave. to get his fish dinner. There were times when he had some very difficult situations, but he made the best of his adversities by staying strong and brave. Jesse we were blessed to have you in our lives. You made us laugh when we wanted to cry, you gave us hope when we wanted to give up and for that we want to say you will forever be in our hearts. WE LOVE YOU. He is survived by three sons Luis Sims, Donald Smith and Thomas Smith. Grandchildren Denessia Sims, Luis Sims Jr., Shenetta Sims, Donetta Smith. Niece Sedonia Byrd Nephew Daniel Thompson and a host of nieces and nephews, other family and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Jesse Jerome Rogers

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I wish to extend my sincere condolences for the loss of Mr. Rogers. Isaiah 26:19 lovingly informs us: "Thy dead live, their bodies will rise again. They that sleep in the earth will awake and shout for joy...The earth will bring those long dead to birth again."-The New English Bible First Corinthians 15:26 tells us that our Heavenly Father will destroy our "enemy death". It is my hope that you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about these wonderful promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM