

Jesse Mitchell

January 7, 1950 - February 13, 2003

JESSE MITCHELL, JR. son of the late Louise and Jesse Mitchell, was born on January 7, 1950. Suddenly he departed this life on February 13, 2003. Jesse received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He excelled in sports, especially basketball. He was also good with his hands. He could fix anything. Two of his many hobbies were painting and drawing. Jesse was employed by Bethlehem Steel for many years. Jesse met and married his true love, Leta T. Mitchell in 1974. From their marriage, four children were conceived: Leta (Weedy), Antoinette (Netty), Ladonnas (Donnas) and Tearza. Jesse was a good person who was respected and liked by all he encountered. He loved his children and they loved him. In his early years as a Dad, he was known as Jesse, a strict disciplinarian who taught us kids early to respect ourselves, our parents and others. He taught us that with prayer and discipline, we could do, be and get through anything that confronted us. He taught us that as a family, there was no I, he or she, but us. So when one did something, all faced the consequences. Later on, he became Dad, the father, less of a disciplinarian and more of a friend. Not just any friend, but our best friend. Jesse is survived by: his wife, Leta T. Mitchell; three daughters, Leta M. Mitchell (Weedy), Antoinette Johnson-Mitchell (Netty) and Tearza F. Johnson-Mitchell (Tweedy-Bird); one son, Ladonnas A. Johnson-Mitchell (Donna); two sisters, Jacqueline Ray and Bridget Chapple; three granddaughters, India, China and Myka; three grandsons, Marcel, Donnas and Armani; five uncles, York, George and Robert Eggleston of Maryland and Leroy Mitchell of Ohio; one aunt, Mary Parker of Baltimore; many nieces and nephews, and a abundance of other relatives and friends.
