

Jesse Montgomery Woodley II

November 4, 1957 - September 9, 2018

"Jay" was born November 4, 1957 to Gladys and Jesse Woodley in Manhattan, NY.

Jay was educated in the New York School system. Jay grew up in Church and was baptized at Community Church of Christ, Bronx, NY.

Jay's love for the Lord Jesus Christ was expressed as a Minister of Music. He was self-taught to play the keyboard, Base, Piano and Drums and never departed from his gift.

On November 1, 1997 he married his best friend and soulmate, the late Linda H. Woodley and they lived as husband and wife in Richmond until the lord called her home in January 2013.

Linda and Jay joined Rising Mount Zion Baptist Church in New Kent County, under the pastorate of Rev. Rudolph V. Sykes, Jr., where Jay served as musician.

Jay fell asleep and took his eternal rest on Sunday, September 9, 2018. He was preceded in death by his wife, Linda H. Woodley; Mother, Gladys E. Woodley and Father, Jesse M. Woodley Sr.

He leaves to cherish his memory Daughter, Sarah H. Woodley; Sons, Rasheed J. Woodley (Sacha) and Andre T. Baldwin (Ashley); 11 grandchildren; Sisters, Laura Castiglia (Larry) and Lauriann Woodley; Brother, Darius Woodley (Liz); Aunt Mae Woodley and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

Jay's smile, sense of humor and gift of music will be greatly missed by all.
