“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

“ You were my surrogate parent and now you have joined a great group of angels that have forever made an impact on my life. You will forever be the vision of what my childhood was and am blessed to know you saw a part of my journey. You were loved and respected more than you will ever know. In my heart, you will be truly missed and say hi to my daddy...and you'll behave.

*Love and devotion,

“ *To the Family of Jessie Mae Hairston:
I wanted to write to express how sorry I was to read of the death of your loved one. Death is such a hurtful thing, but the bible gives us comfort. It tells us at 1 Cor. 15:26 that 'the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing. What a wonderful hope. Then Isaiah 25:8 goes right along with that. It says there that 'God will swallow up death forever. God has a purpose for us and that is we will eventually never have to lose our loved ones in death again. Well I do hope these words have brought you comfort And if you have any questions or comments pleas e-mail me or go to www.jw.org.*
