“ Jessie Mae Lowther

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I would like to extend my condolences to the family and friends of Jessie Lowther. I did not know Emma, but I do know the emotional pain and emptiness that the loss of a loved one brings. Take comfort in knowing that the Bible promises a resurrection of the righteous and unrighteous at Acts twenty-four verse fifteen. That includes Jessie. This promise is not a dream, but a sure hope because “God does not lie” as stated at Numbers twenty-three nineteen. There is nothing I can say to take your pain away, but I hope the thought of being able to see Jessie again on a peaceful new earth, read Psalm thirty-seven verse eleven, brings your family and all that knew Jessie, comfort in the days ahead.

“ The loss of a loved one is never easy. I would like to offer my deepest condolences to all the family and friends. While you keep their memories close to heart, I hope you can find comfort in God's Word the Bible. In Isaiah 25:8, we have the promise that soon God will get rid of all death suffering.
