

Jessie Mae Chambers

May 3, 1938 - September 8, 2003

JESSIE MAE ALSTON CHAMBERS was born on May 3, 1938, to the late Samuel and Violessie Alston in Florence, South Carolina. At an early age, Jessie and her parents moved to Wilmington, North Carolina where she attended public school and began her church life. In 1957, Jessie moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she met and married Eugene Chambers and they were blessed with three children, the late Milton Alston, Sarah Alston Bailey, and Annette Alston. Jessie was a devoted wife and a loving mother. Eugene Chambers preceded her in death in 1993. Jessie was employed by the L&L Cleaning Company from 1965 to 1970. She left the cleaning business to become a homemaker. Jessie was respected by and very generous to the children in the neighborhood and was loved by everyone who knew her. She will be really missed. After a lengthy illness Jessie Chambers was taken to higher heights on Monday, September 8, 2003 at Lorien's Nursing and Rehabilitation Center where God, in His infinite wisdom and mercy saw fit to carry Jessie to His special place where she will live eternally. She has gone home! The love, peace, happiness and joy, which she shared with her family and friends, will always be cherished by her children (the late Milton Alston), Sarah Bailey and Annette Alston; one sister, Mattie Alston; one brother, Thomas Grate; one son-in-law, David Bailey; a special friend, the late Harry Webster; five grandchildren, Larry Alston, Marquis Alston, Donte Alston, Latoyia Jacobs and Natasha Crosby; and five great-grandchildren, Sashay Alston, Larry Alston Jr., Markeisha Alston, Myasia Williams and Raymond

Williams IV; nephews, nieces and a host of other close relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.###imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the Family & Friends of Jessie Mae Chambers: I am sorry to learn of your loss. I send my sincere condolences. It may seem unfair that death has the power to take away someone that we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises a resurrection into a paradise. I pray that you rely on Almighty God many promises recorded in his word the Bible, for strength to cope with your loss. Acts 24:15 & Luke 23:43.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##
