

Jessie Simmons

August 8, 1907 - October 15, 2001

Jessie Dora Simmons, known as “Dora”, daughter of the late Willie and Ida Barton, was born on August 2, 1907 in Princess Anne County, Virginia. She departed her life on October 15, 2001. She received her education in Princess Anne County, Virginia. At an early age she received her religion at the Piney Grove Baptist Church. She started working to help support her younger siblings until the 1930’s when she and her one son moved to Baltimore, Maryland. She then met and married the late George Simmons, Sr. From this union she had several other children, (one daughter who preceded her in death and three sons and two stepsons who also preceded her in death). She worked for many years as a factory and domestic worker putting her children through school. She also supported the growth of her grandchildren and other family members. She later moved her Christian experience to Charity Baptist Church in the late 1950’s; on the corner of Mc Elderry and Aisquith Street and continued service until her illness and was then unable to attend. Jessie made numerous friends wherever she went and will sincerely be missed by everyone who knew her. She leaves to Mourn: four sons William N. Barton, George E. Simmons, Jr., David F. Simmons and James A. Simmons, four daughter-in-laws, thirty-eight grandchildren, thirty-two great-grandchildren, seven great-great grandchildren, three nieces, two nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
