“ Please accept my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow of losing a love one in death. Jehovah God promises that this sorrow will one day be no more. We all look forward to when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more (Revelation 21:3,4). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalms 55:22).##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences to the Jones' family. The death of a loved one can be painful, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1 Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the resurrection hope by stating: "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the passing of your loved one. One day God promises to end all sickness, violence, and all causes of death. Even death itself will be a thing of the past. 1st Corinthians 15:26 makes this wonderful promise, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Can you imagine a world without sickness or death? It's hard for us to imagine it, but it will surely come to pass, because Jehovah is the God of truth who never fails to keep his promise. He says that his word will not return to him without results, but will have certain success in that for which he has sent it. Isaiah 55:11. One day the dead themselves will awaken from the sleep of death. Years ago the prophet Daniel prophesied about this promise. At Daniel 12:2 he said: "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." Also Acts 24:15 promises that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." May you be comforted very much by Jehovah's wonderful promises, because they will without fail come true.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
