

Julian Eloi

July 4, 1961 - August 7, 2016

Julian Eloi, the son of late George and Helen Eloi, was born on July 4, 1961 in Dominica, the Nature Isle of the Caribbean and went home to be with the Lord on Sunday, August 7, 2016. Julian was the devoted husband of Winnie Corriette-Eloi who met in 1979 and married 1991 after a blissful courtship.

Above all Julian loved the Lord and accepted Christ into his life as a teenager. He served in several capacities including first elder, preacher, advisor, councilor, youth director of the Christian Union Church and secretary and treasurer of the district Christian Union board in Dominica. He was a member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Glen Allen, Virginia.

Julian attended the St. Mary's High School Academy for boys where he graduated valedictorian in 1979. After graduating from college, Julian served as a high school teacher and then went on to pursue a law degree. In 1991 he graduated from the University of the West Indies law school in Barbados and went on to complete a Legal Education Law degree at the Hugh Wooding Law School in Trinidad, where he graduated in 1993. Julian returned to Dominica in 1993 where he taught law, served as a Public Prosecuting Attorney and was fortunate to work in the capacity of Judge/Magistrate and Director of the Public Prosecuting Attorneys. As an attorney he treated everyone with respect, fairness and dignity and never once did he loose a case. In 1995 he accepted the position of Cooperate Attorney for the Eastern Caribbean

Central Bank in St Kitts. Julian migrated to the United States in 1997 where he continued his graduate studies in International Law at Howard University and then furthered his law studies at Miami University, Julian was recently employed by the Brown Greer Law firm in Richmond, Virginia, where he took exceptional pride in his work as a co-operate attorney and claims reviewer.

He leaves to cherish his memory his devoted wife Winnie Corriette-Eloi, siblings; McMillian Augustus, Rudy Horseford, Marvlyn Pond, Evaltina Eloi, Anthea Eloi, and Alison Eloi-Berridge, father-in-law Stephen Corriette, brothers-in-law; Henry Berridge, Heskieth Pond, Tony Laville, Jeffrey and Terry Payne and numerous nieces, nephews, family, God children and friends.

“ Just this last month, some friends from UWI Cave Hill who were part of the IVCF/UCCF movement on campus formed a chat group and of course, we reminisced on the good old campus days... This week (August 16) while chatting about those who had been an inspiration and influence to us during those days, the name Julian Eloi came up, and it was then most of us we learnt that Julian had gone to be with Our Heavenly Father.

Words cannot express the sorrow, I personally experienced, while being comforted by the knowledge of his new eternal destiny... I had this hope, that somehow, I would link up with Eloi somewhere like an airport or the streets of some international or Caribbean city, and we would catch up on old times...

I went to UWI as an unbeliever, and it was through the life and witness of Julian and others that I came to know and accept Christ into my life. Julian was like a big brother to me in those days.... I can still hear that laugh of his!

Thank you for allowing yourself to be used as a light and salt in this world.

On behalf of the UCCF fraternity and especially on my own behalf, I want to express belated, heartfelt condolences to family and friends. May Julian Rest In Peace and rise in glory.

God bless

“ Brother Eloi is a member of our Mount Olive Baptist Church family and we want to celebrate his time with us. We don't have to even be on a first name basis with those who we share a "Heavenly Hug." We are "Happy Glad," for the blessing of having this Brother in our family and do pray for love and peace of mind for all who will miss him.
