

Jimmie L. Neason

November 16, 1943 - November 18, 2017

JIMMIE LEE NEASON, son of the late James Mitty Neason and Mary Elizabeth Williams, was born in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on Saturday November 18, 2017.

He graduated from Frederick Douglass High School and later attended Coppin State College. He was enlisted in the United States Navy from 1964 to 1967. He met Doris Louis Armstead and they were married in 1968. Out of this union, three children were born, Adrienne (deceased), Lisa and Lauren. Jimmie also had a daughter, MiKellie, from a previous relationship.

Jimmie had a wonderful sense of humor. Some of his nicknames included "Jimma Lee," Jim Rummy," and the building that he swore was named after him, located inside of every school "Jim-neasium." Jimmie loved Beyonce and referred to her as his baby. He often made jokes with his ex-wife, Doris, referring to their unfinished business, the creation of their next daughter, "Lola." He loved dressing to the nines and spending time with his childhood friends. But most of all he loved his family.

Jimmie leaves to mourn: his three daughters, MiKellie, Lisa, and Lauren; son-in-law, Shawn; two grandchildren, Lekosh and Arianna; nephew, Noel; his dearest friend, Joseph "Butch" Smith; first cousins, Wendy, Neal, Ronnie, Jeffrey and Patricia; and a host of other relatives and friends.
