

Joan Carr-Carter

July 29, 1937 - March 23, 2006

On Thursday, March 23, 2006 the Lord called one of his angels home, JOAN CARR CARTER. Joan was born July 29, 1937 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late John Mason and Ola Fuller. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She graduated from Fredrick Douglass Senior High School 1956. On June 17, 1961, she was joined in Holy Matrimony to Raymond Walter Carter. Through this union three children were born - Kelly, Tracy and Jason. Joan was a loving and devoted wife and mother. She was always concerned about the well being of her family. She was not only a good mother but a best friend to her children. Joan possessed a reservoir of strength and determination that served her on many occasions throughout her illness. In June 2002, Joan retired from the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) after 24 years of dedicated and committed service. She was known at the FBI for her warm smile and laughter. But she was most known for the way she chewed chewing gum. She loved to have fun and play jokes. Joan especially loved to make fun of Raymond, her children, and grandchildren. Her home was always filled with laughter, even during the time of her illness. Her co-workers and friends always complimented her on her versatility, finesse and her ability to change hairstyles and hair colors. Joan enjoyed playing cards and was an avid reader. She maintained an extensive collection of novels and angels. She also enjoyed taking day trips to Atlantic City. Joan leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted husband of 44 years, Raymond; her loving children, Kelly Curry, Tracy Carter and Jason Carter; four grandchildren, Brandon, Rudy, Ebony and Jason Jr.; one son-in-law, Rudie Curry; one sister, Barbara Kearney; three brothers, David Fuller, Michael Brice and James Brice; a step-father, Weldon Fuller; one aunt, Marion Freeman; two uncles, George Carr and Leroy Carr; and a host of family, friends and neighbors who will greatly miss her loving smile.

“ To the family of Mrs. Joan Carr-Carter to loss someone we love in death is truly hard so please except my condolences. Not to hear them laugh or to see their beautiful smile again makes you wonder if there is a remedy for death at John 5:21 Jesus said: "Just as the Father (Jehovah) raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to." According to the Bible, the only remedy for death is the resurrection. Who will be resurrected and to where? At John 5:28,29 Jesus said: "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. Come out to what? Act 24:15 tells us "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." But where Psalms 37:29 says: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, And they will reside forever upon it." Jehovah God and Jesus Christ promise this will happen in the near future right here on earth. I hope you find comfort in this letter. “ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Our family finds much comfort in the resurrection hope found in the Bible. This hope is what we want to share with you. Acts 24:15 promises that "There is going to be a resurrection." Jesus himself talked about "paradise"on the earth (Luke 23:43,Matthew 5:5)in God's due time there will be a happy reunion of loved ones returning to life on the earth with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. May you receive much comfort and strength from this Bible promise.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the recent death of Mrs. Caarter. Although I didn't know her personally, she sounded like a very lovely lady. I'm sure she will be missed very much. Death is something we can never come to grips with no matter how many loved ones we lose, because it was never God's purpose for us to die. He wants us to live forever in peace and happiness. That's why he has purposed to put an end to suffering and death forever. Isaiah 25:8 says, He will actually swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from off all faces". That promise from God will come true in the near future. Instead of tears of anguish, we will shed tears of joy when we see our loved ones again in the promised resurrection. May our heavenly father give you the comfort you need at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ Though during your time of grief it may not seem possible but there is always light at the end of every tunnel especially when someone dear has been separated from us due to death. Death in this present day is not something we want as a part of life’s cycle. Our heavenly father Jehovah God wants you to know that. He wants all people to know he is aware of all our suffering and losses due to our enemy Satan and he will soon rectify because this is not the way he purpose life to be. 1John 4:8 lets us know God is Love so out of his love for us he made a provision that only the true and Almighty God can do. Jehovah have promise according to Rev 21:3,4 that death one day will be no more... the things that causes pain and mourning will be no more. As for those we have lost to death, John 5: 28, 29 states those in the memorial tombs will hear God’s sons voice, Jesus Christ and will awaken from an eternal sleep that have been made a temporary state now due to the ransom sacrifice of Jesus Christ. How wonderful the day when you will be able to enjoy your once lost loved one to death. Yes Jehovah promises us the gift of everlasting life according to Titus 1:2. The righteous ones will reside on earth forever as he informs us at Psalms 37:29 because that have always been his purpose since the beginning of mans creation again stated at Titus 1:2. You can have trust in this promised hope because Isaiah 55: 11 states of Jehovah his words will not return to him without results. Yes trust in God’s word the bible because Hebrews 6:18 says it is impossible for God to lie. My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
