

Joan Dale Lyles

June 15, 1944 - August 27, 2005

A Time To Be Born ... JOAN D. LYLES, daughter of the late Mary Elizabeth Vannison and James A. Vannison, Sr., was born on June 15, 1944 in Lynchburg, Virginia. And A Time To Die ... God saw it fit to call his darling angel home on August 27, 2005 for eternal rest, where there will be peace in the valley forever more. A Time To Build ... She received her education in the Lynchburg, Virginia School System. She later became a Counselor at a Drug Rehabilitation Center for over nine years. A Time To Share ... One of Joan's greatest attributes was the ability to make long lasting loyal friends. Some of these friendships crossed blood lines which included them as family members. She would give her last to any person in need. Joan loved social gatherings with family and friends which included telling jokes, going to the beach every summer, watching movies, dancing and especially watching little kids playing. She was known for going to Lexington Market for her favorite banana pudding. If she wasn't up to the trip herself; she had no problems sending you. She made weekly trips to the Jones Falls Farmers Market to purchase fresh fruits and vegetables. Joan was a warm and caring person who always displayed a sweet spirit every time she would smile. Joan's love for family was most important in her life. She had a unique relationship with each of her children. Even after her health failed, she preserved to keep her family together. Joan leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters, Neemah Thomas and Maisha Reynolds; four sons, Michael Lyles, Truitt Lyles, Antonio Lyles and Gregory Reynolds; three sisters, Dorothy LeSane, Beatrice Cole and Gaynell Vannison; two brothers, James A. Vannison, Jr. and Reginald Vannison; twelve grandchildren; one uncle, Herman Lyles, additional family, Elaine Johnson, numerous nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Although I did not know the dearly departed sister of Dottie Lesane personally, I know how it must have affected her. A sister who loved her like only a sister could and I know she will be sorely missed. I offer my condolences to the family of Joan Lyles as well as a prayer of faith to God for both Dottie and her family. I want you all to know that every battle that is in your hands is for you to fight. But know there is no problem, circumstance, or situation greater than God. I am asking God to go by and see about the family on a daily basis. I want to remind those of you whom she left behind that Earth has no Sorrow that Heaven can't Endure! Be Blessed Everyone, Wendy King###imported-begin##Wendy King##imported-end##
