“ I offer my sincere condolences to you in your sorrow. Losing a loved one is so very hard to come to terms with. We miss them so much; their smile, their touch, their laughter. God does not desire us to experience such pain, because he created us to be happy with eternal life in view. This is why he sent his precious son Jesus, to pay the ransom price for us to done with sin, death, and sorrow. John 3:16 reminds us: "For God loved the world so much, that he gave his only-begotten son, so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." God also promises a ressurection for the dead. I'm sure you'll agree, how wonderful it will be to see the dead come back to life. May the prayers of your friends, and the promises from the scriptures be a wonderful source of comfort to you in the days to come.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ Farewell Joan! Now you have become an angel to watch over your loved ones. May the peace of our savior abide upon all of the hearts that you've touched. I will miss your angelic spirit. And will especially miss you bringing your mom to our Benjamin Banneker Elementary P.S. #113 Annual Reunions. God knows what is best for all of us. HE does not make ANY mistakes. You were abundantly blessed to be surrounded by your loving family and husband and am sure they will cherish beautiful memories of you!##imported-begin##Lizzie##imported-end##
