

Joan E. Martin

February 3, 1955 - July 12, 2004

Joan E. Martin, daughter of the late Horace and Mary Martin, was born on February 3, 1955 in Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina. She departed this life on July 12, 2004. She received her education at Northeast High School in Pasadena. Upon completion of high school, she worked for the State of Maryland. She worked for Maif Insurance and then later on she worked for the Department of Corrections in Jessup, Maryland. Joan made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a good friend and devoted mother. She also won the Editors Choice Award for her poem, "Its Better To Be A Kid," written earlier this year. She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Talaya Wiley; two sisters, Theresa Martin of Pasadena, Maryland and Jennifer Martin of Glen Burnie, Maryland; brothers, Jeff Martin of Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina and Horace Martin of Glen Burnie, Maryland; (a brother Ricky Martin preceded her in death); three aunts and two uncles, and a host of other relatives and friends. IT'S BETTER TO BE A KID It's better to be a kid My mom is my maid She cooks and cleans She doesn't get paid; My dad is my chauffeur I live for free, He takes me to school And they both love me. I'm too young to know jealousy, too young to be much Fun for me is nature, insects and such; if I'm helped with my homework, it's not cheating; I go to bed and wake to a day worth repeating. “ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
