

Joan P. Eppes

February 15, 1951 - January 23, 2011

JOAN P. EPPES, the daughter of the late James Bush and Louise E. Hopkins was born on February 15, 1951 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the second of five children born to Louise (a devoted mother). Joan passed away on January 23, 2011 after a lengthy illness with Breast Cancer.

She attended Carver Vocational Technical High School where she received her Diploma in Nursing. Later, she attended the Community College of Baltimore where she received her Associates of Art Degree. She also continued her education in Nursing at the University of Maryland Baltimore County. In the early 1970's, Joan married Herman A. Eppes who was employed at the Bethlehem Steel Corporation. Joan boasted of her employment at Johns Hopkins Hospital where she worked with children who had special needs.

She was a very compassionate and giving person. But, she was also a very private person. She kept to herself, her kids and the immediate family. Joan was one of the most caring, loving and devoted mothers a child could want, And, she enjoyed spending quality time with her grandchildren, Patience, Janiah and Unique.

Joan is survived by two children- Sophia and Jonelle. She also leaves behind to cherish her memory, her 3 brothers Roger, Tony, and Keith; and one sister,

Jeanette and her beloved grandchildren.

Joan will be sorely missed by her family and friends.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this difficult time, may you be comforted by the promise found t Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away."

A Robinson - January 30, 2011 at 05:18 AM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible tells us that our enemy death is going to be destroyed. There is hope that our loved ones will return to life by means of a resurrection. Acts 24:15 declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope that will be made possible by Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.
