

Joan M. Brown

June 9, 1940 - April 2, 2006

JOAN MARIE BROWN was born Joan Marie Cooper on June 9, 1940 at University Hospital in Baltimore MD, daughter of the late Mildred Marie Mines and Edward Cooper. She departed this life on April 2, 2006 Joan grew up in Virginia with her family and soon moved to Baltimore at the age of 12, to stay with her mother. She received her education at Carver High School in Baltimore where she studied cosmetology. She loved to do hair, dance and was invited to dance on the Buddy Dean Show for a few episodes. Later she met and married James Malichi Brown and had four children born to that union. She loved kids and kept close to all her children. Whether you were one of the kids in the neighborhood or not, they always called her Ms. Joan. Being a faithful wife, a strong mother and a good person - that's what she lived for. To make all of us better. She lived for us. Being a grandmother was the most awesome thing - an extension of herself, her children. She was a devoted, loving grandmother. After years of duty as a mother and grandmother, she grew tired and the Lord decided to bring her home to rest from her labor of what God called the duty of a mother to be. One of the greatest gifts to a woman on earth. She leaves to mourn: four children, Sandra, Renarda, John and James; son-in-law, Wayne Miller; daughter-in-law, Shirley Walker Brown; grandchildren, Nikia, Crystal, Tierra, Alicia, Kim, Avery, Jalisa, James, Carlea, Jasmine, Trevasia, Trevon, and one great-grandchild, Mia; her brothers, Hamilton Claiborne, Percy Mines, Melvin Mines and her sister, Mildred Jones; four sisters-in-law from her late husband, Susie, Ninky, Ellen, and Lizzy; and her best friend who was there until the end, Evelyn Gibson. She also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

“ So very sorry that you lost your loved one in death Death is the most painful thing in our lives, something we can never come to grips with. We love them and miss them so, and long to have them back with us. Our loving father knows our grief, and he promises to end the scourge of sickness and death, and reunite us with our loved ones, As Isaiah 25"8 tells us, one day he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Please find comfort in his promises, because they will all come true.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ The lost of a loved one has an overwhelming impact on all and especially the immediate family. The pain and suffering alone is very hard to bear and no one should ever have to experience such a dark and sad time in life. However it seems to be no escape no matter the cause. I extend my deepest sympathy and thoughts of encouragement from the one who can remove such pain and grieving sorrow from the human family, that one is the Almighty Jehovah God. Jehovah is saddened over how life has turned due to the course of actions of our first parents Adam and Eve. However, because Jehovah is a loving God he has promised the offspring's of Adam and Eve a way out. In the near future He said death will be no more and the things that causes death will be no more according to Rev 21:3-4. This promise of life has always been Jehovah God's purpose for mankind according to Titus 1:2. This is a promise he can't lie about. Hebrews 6: 18 states of Jehovah God, it is impossible for him to lie. That is an encouraging hope. Also for those who suffer with all sorts of illness Isaiah 33:24 says it will come a time no one on the earth will say they are sick and the lame will walk Isaiah 35:6, the blind will see, Isaiah 35:5 and the greatest promise of them all will be when Jesus Christ will call all those in the memorial tombs to come out. Yes our loved ones will be blessed with a resurrection to life right here on earth. John 5:28-29 Yes Jehovah will resurrect those back to life to enjoy everlasting life with all their families and friends Ps 37: 10 states the meek will inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Ps 37:29. It's truly understandable since our heavenly father created the earth for man to live according to Isaiah 45:18. We can truly trust in God's written word because nothing he says will not return without results Isaiah 55:11. So we can dry our eyes due to the tears of sadness but tears of joy will flow when we can once again enjoy the lives of our loved ones temporarily lost to death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ So sorry about the loss of your mom. Please accept my condolences. The Bible gives us a most comforting promise: "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May you receive much hope and strength from this Bible promise.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ms. Brown, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I wish to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Ms. Brown. No doubt the family is in need of support and comfort. A comforting resource that has personally me helped is God's inspired word the bible. May your family be comforted by the words found at Acts 24:15 and Job 14:7,14##imported-begin##K.
