

Joan Fisher Percival

August 22, 1942 - July 2, 2010

Joan Fisher Percival, died in her beloved home on Friday, July 2, 2010 surrounded by family and love, following an extended illness. She is survived by her daughters, Adrienne Percival (39) of Lake Worth, Fla., and Lauren Percival (35) of Mechanicsville; three granddarlings, Amber Lynn (12), Rachel Nichole (9), and Ashleigh Garnett (6); her sister, Marian Fisher Marlow of Lawrenceville, Ga.; and numerous nieces, nephews and chosen family. She was preceded in death by her sister, Claudia Fisher Schulten; and brothers, James Fisher Jr. and Lewis Fisher. She will be meeting her college sweetheart and husband, G. Barry Percival, in heaven which will no doubt be a spirited reunion. During Joan's rich life she was a teacher, an award-winning floral designer, a film buff, a president of several community organizations, a fabulous cook, a senior warden on the vestry, an artist, a pay lady for Car Pool, a world traveler, a successful businesswoman, a philanthropist, a mentor and a dear, dear friend. She drank deep from the well of life, sharing all she was and had and loved with others. A memorial service will be held 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, July 7 at The Church of the Creator, 7159 Mechanicsville Turnpike, where Joan created the stained glass windows in a four year labor of love. Afterwards, there will be fellowship and remembrances at the family home. In lieu of flowers, donations to Child Fund are appreciated: Child Fund, 2821 Emerywood Pkwy., Richmond, Va. 23294. www.childfund.org.
