Joan R. Hayes was born on December 24, 1938 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the daughter of the late Bernice and Nelson Hynson. Joan was educated in the Baltimore City School system. She was a faithful employee of Sinai Hospital for thirty-one years. Joan's religious heritage commenced at Arlington and Lewin Methodist Church. Joan was a devoted member for a number of years. Joan truly enjoyed family gatherings and singing her favorite tunes. Her warm smile and her unique way of talking continue to ring in our ears. Her love did not stop with her family, but extended to close friends and others. On October 8, 2003 at University Hospital, God opened His gates, and extended, His hands, and called Joan home. Joan leaves to mourn: her loving son, Alvin Gilles; five granddaughters, Juanita, Stacey, Tiffany, Rhonda and Shelly; fourteen great-grandchildren; one goddaughter, Chantel Bell; five surviving sisters, Delores Phillips, Barbara Jennings, Annette McCloud, Phyllis Hynson and Sheila Brodgen; one brother, Alfonso Hynson; one aunt, Eva Todd; a host of other relatives and friends. Momma, God has blessed me with a wonderful mother like you. Your kind heart, lovable ways and forgiveness. I will cast my cares to the Lord and He will sustain me. Your Loving Son, Alvin

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family. Our family finds much comfort and solace in the promises of the Bible. ob 14:14,15 says- "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, Until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning. God is yearning to bring our loved ones back to life. He promises to do this.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
