

Joan Burton White

January 30, 1941 - May 11, 2012

Our beloved Joan Burton White, age 71, of Rego Park, New York passed away peacefully on May 11, 2012 after a long and courageous battle with cancer. She was born January 30, 1941 the daughter of the late Rev. Clarence and Abbie Burton. She was preceded in death by her loving sister, Ruth E. Williams.

Joan graduated from Southold High School, class of 1959. After graduation, she moved to New York City where she enjoyed a long career in the insurance industry. Following that, she worked for the Trade Commission of Norway, where she retired on disability and 2002.

She will always be remembered as a very devoted, kind, caring, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. Joan enjoyed shopping, spending time with her family and cooking.

We will cherish her memory and she will be deeply missed. She is survived by two loving sons, Greg White of Rego Park, New York and Mark White of Houston, Texas; a devoted granddaughter, Tyra White Meadows (David) twin sister Jean Burley of Richmond, Virginia, one niece, Kim J. Eggleston (Robert) of Richmond, Virginia; two great-nieces, one great nephew and a host of relatives and friends one devoted, Hattie Walden.

Let me go
When I come to the end of the road
And the sun is set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remembered the love that once we shared
Miss me, but that me go.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
